Mr. Routt then continued by highlighting an internship program (work based learning) that Mr. John Dattilo along with Mr. Steve Deaton is involved in. There are currently 23 seniors that are participating in a wide range of internships as well as getting paid for their time. Students that are credit eligible (on track to graduate) may participate by having a modified schedule. These qualifying seniors attend their required courses in the morning then go to work at their internship. Mr. Routt stated next school year's goal was to have 50 seniors participate and there are currently already 41 juniors signed up. Mr. Rott feels that this is an excellent opportunity for our students and anticipates the program to continue growing. Mr. Dattilo is also assisting SHS teachers with being involved in externships during the summer. There are currently 23 teachers signed up with a wide range of different interests.

Also, 5 teams from the south qualified to fish for the State Championship on Raccoon Lake, May 23rd. 3 of these teams are from Scottsburg: Bailey Hurtt/Jordan Thompson, Kaden Raichel/Wyatt Harmon, and Ethan Weaver/Tanner Brown. Mr. Zollman made a motion to award the job to Security Pros. Second by Mrs. Soloe, motion carried 5-0.

The board asked of any year end events and how they were being handled regarding Covid. Dr. Slaton said that we now have students going on some field trips. Also, each building will be holding their end of the year activities such as Preschool, Kindergarten, 5th Grade, and 8th Grade Graduation. Buildings are looking at having one class at a time to allow for plenty of social distancing still being required. Scottsburg High School will be having two graduation ceremonies. All graduates will be given eight (8) tickets for family/friends to be in attendance. This will roughly be 1,000 people in attendance at each ceremony. This is under capacity and will allow for social distancing as well.

Dr. Slaton asked that everyone keep these families in your thoughts and prayers.

Paulette Meeks (Bus Driver) father, Sam Parks passed away Thursday, April 15. Sam was also Mauricia Kimberlin's step-dad.

Rochelle Mendenhall's (Cook at JES) husband, Ricky was killed in an accident last Thursday, April 15th. Funeral service being held in Mooresville, IN.
